<td>Learning outcomes 1-3 will be assessed using a combination of activities undertaken during the honours year. These include written and oral presentations of the research proposal, the ethics application, the final oral presentation of the research results. These will be assessed at a pass/fail hurdle requirements only. As such these must be undertaken to a satisfactory standard. That is, a student who submits these items to the satisfaction of the supervisor, and assessors for honours presentations, will pass them. Approval of ethics application by HREO will be considered as meeting this requirement. Assessment of the level of honours will be based on the honours research thesis.
